

Urgent Care Association of America

Laurel Stoimenoff

Laurel Stoimenoff joined NextCare Urgent Care (Mesa, AZ) in November 2004 and has served as President and Chief Operating Officer since April 2005. Ms. Stoimenoff has over 25 years of health care management experience. Prior to joining NextCare, from April 2002 to October 2004, Ms. Stoimenoff provided consulting services to various entities in the health care industry as principal and owner of Apex Management and Development, LLC as well as principal and co-owner of Inovix Medical Group, LLC.

Previously, from February 2001 to April 2002, Ms. Stoimenoff served as Senior Vice President, Development for Comprehensive Medical Imaging, a division of Syncor International, Inc., an outpatient diagnostics imaging company, where she was responsible for all mergers, acquisitions and hospital partnerships until its sale to Cardinal Health. From January 2000 to February 2001, she served as President of MATRIX Rehabilitation, Inc., a division of Beverly Enterprises, which included a national footprint of over 180 outpatient rehabilitation and urgent care clinics, and, from 1991 to 2000, she held numerous leadership positions within NovaCare, an outpatient rehabilitation and orthotics and prosthetics company, including Western Region President of Operations for the Outpatient Division.

Additionally, from 1990 to 1999, Ms. Stoimenoff served the public in two consecutive terms in a Governor-appointed position as a member of the Arizona Physical Therapy Board of Examiners. She served in a leadership position as Board President for half of her tenure on that Board. Additionally, she is the immediate Past-Chair of the Arizona Foundation for Women (AFW), an organization focused on eradicating domestic violence, access to healthcare for women and their children and elevating women out of poverty. She remains an active Board member of AFW. Ms. Stoimenoff holds a Bachelor's Degree in Allied Health Professions from Ohio State University, with a major in Physical Therapy.

Contact Information:

Laurel Stoimenoff

laurelstoimenoff@nextcare.com